

Labour Market Information – Portfolio Websites (2006)

Source: These websites were collected by students in the Labour Market Information Course in the Douglas College Career Development Practitioner Program, November 2006.

SFU Teaching Portfolio Site

<http://www.lidc.sfu.ca/teaching/prod/TeachingPortfolio/index.php>

This site was created by SFU's Learning and Instructional Development Centre to provide information and resources for the creation of a teaching portfolio, also known as a teaching dossier.

UBC e-Portfolio Site

https://www.elearning.ubc.ca/home/index.cfm?menuClicked=4/1/&p=main/dsp\_eport\_resources.cfm

Provides a comprehensive set of links for the creation and use of both regular and e-portfolios.

UBC Teaching and Academic Growth Portfolio Links

<http://www.tag.ubc.ca/resources/teachingportfolios/>

A collection of links to resources for electronic teaching portfolios.

BC Ministry of Education Graduation Portfolio Links

http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/graduation/portfolio/portfolio\_guide.htm

The Ministry's links to articles and information regarding graduation portfolios in BC.

David Brear's Article on Developing Student e-Portfolios

<http://members.shaw.ca/dbrear/dseportfolios.html>

This site contains a wealth of information regarding e-portfolios and is developed by a North Vancouver teacher.

Special Education Technology (SET) – BC Grad Portfolio Workbook

<http://www.setbc.org/gradportfolio/>

This program offers a link to a detailed workbook (in Adobe pdf format) for creation of a BC Grad Portfolio.

Educause Overview of e-Portfolios

<http://www.educause.edu/ir/library/pdf/ELI3001.pdf>

The Educause site contains an interesting article regarding the creation and use of e-Portfolios.

Florida State University Portfolio Links

<http://www.career.fsu.edu/portfolio/>

Interesting online career portfolio site from Florida State University with portfolio tours, sample portfolios, and slideshows of portfolios. This system enables undergrads to develop portfolios for viewing by employers and others.

Florida State University Portfolio Preparation Guide

<http://www.career.fsu.edu/ccis/guides/port.html>

A comprehensive guide to help you create your own professional portfolio. Provides information on why you should have one, what to include, how to organize and format it, and how to use it in an interview.

Tutorial: Career Portfolio, by Jennifer Margison

<http://www.careerservices.uvic.ca/tutorials/career-portfolio.html>

The author provides a helpful tutorial on creating a career portfolio, in which she discusses why we need one and indicates the materials needed to get started in preparing one.

Alberta Learning Information Service (ALIS) Site on Portfolios

<http://www.alis.gov.ab.ca/tips/archive.asp?EK=151>

This site provides tips for creating a portfolio and serves as a good starting point for this topic, as well as providing other useful employment resource links.

Webgrrls International: Building Your Portfolio

<http://www.webgrrls.com/wfs.jhtml?/career/advice/portfolio.phtml>

This women's technology knowledge connection provides information on building a print and online portfolio.

Clark College Career Services: Portfolios

<http://www.clarke.edu/career/students/jobsearch/portfolios.htm>

This site contains general information about what a portfolio is and what should be included in this career tool.

Labour Market Information – Portfolio Websites (2006)

Quintessential Careers: Your Job Skills Portfolio – Giving You an Edge in the Marketplace

http://www.quintcareers.com/job\_search\_portfolio.html

This article lists 16 items to include in a portfolio and provides links to more information for some of these items.

George Brown College: Creating a Professional Portfolio

<http://www.georgebrown.ca/saffairs/stusucc/portfolio.aspx>

This site what a portfolio is, why it is important, the advantages to having one, what is included in one, and some guidelines to follow when preparing one.

Teach.net Portfolio Site

<http://www.teachnet.com/how-to/employment/portfolios/>

This site is designed specifically for teachers and provides advice on creating a portfolio that will show your skills.

Manitoba Education Site

http://www.edu.gov.mb.ca/k12/docs/support/c\_portfolio/index.html

This site provides a self-managed career portfolio guide for the K-12 school system.

Alberta Human Resources and Employment

<http://www.techprep.ab.ca/PresentingYourCareerPort.pdf>

This site contains a facilitator's guide to assist students with presentation of their portfolios.

Central Alberta Career Prep – Using a Portfolio

<http://www.techprep.ab.ca/CABcareerportfolios.htm>

Site provides a brief guide in the use of a portfolio.

Martin Kimeldorf's Portfolio Library

http://www.amby.com/kimeldorf/p\_mk-toc.html

Highly recommended site by Martin Kimeldorf offering a variety of articles on career portfolio development. Also provides an excellent on-line example of a portfolio; click on "Kimeldorf's Career Portfolio Sampler."

Canada Prospects 1999 Portfolio Article

http://www.careerccc.org/products/cp\_99\_e/section2/remember.html

"Remember your portfolio and employers will remember you". Provides tips on how to build and use your portfolio.

Nebo School District Guidelines and Resources

<http://www.nebo.edu/portal/employees/portfolio/index.html>

This website provides general guidelines and resources for creating career portfolios.

Colorado State Business College: Creating an Impressive Portfolio

<http://www2.biz.colostate.edu/career/portfolio.htm>

This on-line guide has some good advice for anyone wanting to build an effective career portfolio.

University of Alaska: Electronic Portfolio Development

<http://helenbarrett.com/>

Useful information, ideas and links on electronic portfolio development from Helen Barrett.

Association of American Geographers Portfolio Basics

<http://www.aag.org/Careers/UW/Profportfolios.html>

This site provides an interesting summary of portfolios. Be sure to click on "Starting Your Portfolio Collection"

Adult Student.com – The Accomplishments Portfolio

<http://www.adultstudent.com/student/asg5/port.html>

Barbara Ritter's guidelines and steps in developing a professional portfolio.

Electronic Teaching Portfolios

<http://electronicportfolios.com/portfolios/site2000.html>

Helen Barrett's article on the benefits and value of creating electronic portfolios.

